CUSTOMS TARIFF ACT 1975

1975

No.7

AN ACT to prescribe the Customs Tariff of Samoa.

[Assent and commencement date: 11 August 1975]

1. Short title – This Act may be cited as the Customs Tariff Act 1975.

2. Interpretation – (1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

“Customs tariff” means the Customs tariff contained in the First Schedule;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for Revenue;

“Revenue Board” means the National Revenue Board established pursuant to the Public Finance Management Act 2001.

(2) This Act is declared to be a Customs Act for the purposes of section 3(3) and (4) of the Customs Act 2014, and in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, expressions used have the same meanings as they have in the Customs Act 2014.

(3) Section 121 of the Customs Act 2014 applies to all alterations made by this Act to the Customs duties in force in Samoa on the commencement of this Act.

3. Imposition of Customs duty – (1) Duty is imposed, and shall be levied, collected, and paid, on all goods:

(a) imported into Samoa; or

(b) entered therein for home consumption, –

according to the value of the goods, under Part I of the Customs Tariff contained in the First Schedule, or as otherwise provided therein.

(2) Despite subsection (1), the Minister may, in the Minister's discretion and in accordance with Part II of the Customs tariff, approve in respect of the entry of goods of any of the classes specified in Part II the appropriate rate of duty or exemption specified in Part II, and duty shall be levied, collected, and paid accordingly in respect of goods of such class:

PROVIDED THAT, acting on the advice of Cabinet, the Minister may, subject to such conditions as the Minister considers fit, approve a rate of duty not less than that specified in Part II, and not more than that specified in Part I of the Customs Tariff.

(3) An approval given by the Minister under subsection (2) is to be published in the Gazette and in the Savali, and the approval does not have effect until it has been published either in the Gazette or in the Savali.

3A. Primage duty – (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act or any other Customs Act, and in addition to the duty imposed by section 3, there is imposed, and to be levied, collected, and paid, on all dutiable goods imported into Samoa or entered for home consumption, after this Act comes into force, a duty of Customs to be known as primage duty at the rate of 4% of the value of such goods.

(2) The value of goods for the purposes of this section is to be determined under the Customs Act 2014.

4. Alterations to nomenclature – (1) The Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, may by Order amend the Customs Tariff:

- (a) by revoking or amending any heading, heading number, subheading, item, or item number, or the title of any Part, section, chapter, or subchapter of the Customs Tariff, or by inserting any new heading, heading number, subheading, item, item number, or title, in such manner as he thinks necessary for the purpose of ensuring that the Customs Tariff conforms to any international nomenclature or trade classification upon which it is for the time being based; or
  - (b) by revoking, suspending, or amending any provision of the notes forming part of the Customs Tariff, or by inserting any new provision in the notes, for the purpose of ensuring the proper operation of the Customs Tariff; or
  - (c) by inserting, omitting, or altering any statistical unit.
- (2) No amendment made pursuant to subsection (1)(a) shall alter the duties or exemptions from duty applicable to goods classified under any item or heading so revoked or amended.

5. Power to alter Customs Tariff for certain purposes – (1) Subject to subsection (2), whenever the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, is satisfied:

- (a) that the existence of a duty of Customs, or the rate of any such duty, or the exemption of any goods from duty, operates or is likely to operate in an injurious, unfair, or anomalous manner in respect either generally to the public interest or particularly to any industry, trade, business, or occupation established or carried on in Samoa; or
- (b) that trade concessions (whether by way of railway or shipping or air freight, special bounty, rebate, or otherwise) are being allowed, taken, or granted on goods from Samoa; or
- (c) that the duties payable in any country on the importation of goods from Samoa are excessive; or

- (d) that the importation into any country of any goods is prohibited or restricted, and that the prohibition or restriction operates or is likely to operate in a manner that is prejudicial or injurious to any industry, trade, business, or occupation established or carried on in Samoa; or
- (e) that by reason of any agreement or arrangement made with the Government of any country, as referred to in section 8, the duties payable on the importation into Samoa of goods being the produce or manufacture of any other country operate, or are likely to operate, to the disadvantage of that other country,– the Head of State may by Order suspend the existing Customs tariff in whole or in part, and by the same or a subsequent Order in lieu thereof, impose on any goods such duties of Customs, or create such exemptions from duty, as appear to the Head of State to be just.

(2) Any duties imposed under this section shall not, except so far as they are imposed for any of the reasons specified in subsection (1)(c) or (d) or for the protection of any industry, trade, business, or occupation established or carried on in Samoa, exceed the duties in lieu of which they are imposed.

(3) An order under this section may relate generally to all goods or to goods of any specified class or classes or to goods imported from any specified country or from any specified person.

6. Modification of Customs Tariff – Subject to section 8, the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, may by Order modify the Customs tariff, but so that such modification shall not, except for the purposes of such an agreement or arrangement as is referred to in section 8 have the effect of imposing on any goods a higher duty than that set forth in respect of those goods in the Customs tariff.

7. Imposition of duties corresponding with duties imposed on Samoan goods – Subject to section 8, but despite any other provision of this Act, the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, may by Order adopt with respect to goods being the produce or manufacture of, or imported from, any country the Customs tariff of that country, either in whole or in part, so far as it applies to goods being the produce or manufacture of, or imported from, Samoa, and duties shall be levied, collected, and paid accordingly, and in any such case the Customs tariff shall, to the extent specified in the Order, cease to apply to such goods.

8. Conditions as to exercise of powers conferred by sections 6 and 7 – The powers conferred on the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, by sections 6 and 7 are exercisable:

- (a) for the purpose of giving effect to any agreement or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Government of Samoa with the Government of any other country with the object of promoting trade between those countries; or
- (b) in case of the adoption by any country of a tariff that imposes excessive rates of duty on any goods being the produce or manufacture of Samoa; or
- (c) in any case where the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, is of opinion that the exercise of those powers or of any such powers is necessary or advisable in protection or furtherance of the public interest.

9. Dumping duty for protection of domestic industry –

(1) A dumping duty may be imposed on goods imported into Samoa where:

- (a) goods are imported at less than their normal value; and
- (b) the importation causes or threatens to cause material injury to an established industry in Samoa, or materially retards the establishment of a domestic industry.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a product is deemed to be imported at less than its normal value if the price of the product exported from another country into Samoa is:

- (a) less than the comparable price, in the ordinary course of trade, for the like product when destined for consumption in the exporting country; or
- (b) in the absence of such domestic price, is less than—

- (i) the highest comparable price for the like product for export to any third country in the ordinary course of trade; or
- (ii) the cost of production of the product in the country of origin plus a reasonable addition for selling cost and profit.

(3) The rate or amount of a dumping duty levied under this section shall not be greater than the margin of dumping in respect of such product.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the margin of dumping is the price difference determined under subsection (2).

(5) For the purposes of this section, the actual selling price of any goods is deemed not to exceed the amount payable under usual commercial practice by the importer or purchaser of the goods, exclusive of any charges that are not taken into account in determining the current domestic value of goods under the Customs Act 2014.

(6) In every such case in subsection (5), the amount payable as aforesaid of any goods is ascertained as if the parties had agreed that payment for those goods should be made in Samoa.

(7) Pursuant to section 333 of the Customs Act 2014, the Head of State, acting on the advice of Cabinet, may make regulations to give effect to this section.

(8) Where applicable under this section, a dumping duty is levied, collected and paid, except where the Minister directs that the imposition of the duty is not required in the public interest.

10. Repeals, revocations, amendments, and savings – (1)

To the extent that they form part of the law of Samoa, the enactments specified in the Second Schedule are repealed.

(2) To the extent that they form part of the law of Samoa, the Orders and regulations specified in the Third Schedule are revoked.

(3) The enactments specified in the Fourth Schedule are amended in the manner indicated in that Schedule.

(4) Despite the preceding provisions of this Act, an exemption notice specified in the Fifth Schedule remains in full force and effect, as if made under this Act, until it is revoked by the Minister in the manner in which it was made.

(5) The Customs Duty (Primage) Exemption Notice 1972 is revoked.
