

2005 ADOC AWARD - WEBSITE ESTABLISHMENT

Transforming Digital Divide to Digital Opportunity

Winner of ADOC (Apec Digital Opportunity Center) Award 2005

The Papua New Guinea Statistical Website Project, participating on behalf of NSO as one of the three (3) best e Practices in the country, achieved by the NSO IT Branch. Presented by the State Enterprises Department on 24th August, 2005.

Back : L-R: Vagi Kari, David Hamal, Patricia Seboda, Patty Tuakana
Seated: L-R: Serah Isu, Leslie Wongo (Award Winner) Winn Myint (Branch Head)

Related Brief

Participants were invited to submit project papers on:
(Scope of practices)

- E-Government
- E-Business
- Enterprise resource planning

- E-payment
- E-learning
- Website establishment
- E-Tax
- Supply chain management
- Customer relationship management
- On-Line game
- Digital archives
- Digital content development

From participants invited in PNG, NSO, Lands and Health dept. received/won the Award; a trophy and US$200 cash as the best e-practices in the country. NSO submitted its project paper on PNG-PRISM project, The PNG Statistical Website.

The ADOC Award 2005 theme is to select the best e-practices in each APEC member countries which invest in bridging Digital Divide currently experienced. Selection was also done on the three best e-practices in the APEC regional level.