

Households with Piped Water by Municipality (%): 2000 Census

The color of each area corresponds to piped water access. Yellow areas have an indicator rate within the national average, blue areas have an indicator below the national average, and orange or brown areas indicate rates above the national average.

Households w/piped water (%) by Municipality

