

Unemployment Rate by Municipality (%): 2000 Census

The color of the maps corresponds to level of unemployment. Yellow shaded areas indicate where level of unemployment equals to or above the national average by more than 18 percentage points, blue shaded areas indicate where level of unemployment is below the national average, and orange or brown shaded areas indicate where level of unemployment is above the national average by more than 18 percentage points.

Unemployment rate (%) by Municipality

